Dear Jackson Street Church Family,

Thank you so much for the gorgeous Peace lily in memory of my brother, Bobby. Your sweet expression of sympathy will be remembered for years to come as the plant thrives and will continue to be a source of comfort.

I am very blessed to be a part of the Jackson Street family.

In Christian love,
Nancy Bailey

Lafayette County Elementary PTD appreciates your help in helping us gather up items for our Christmas Store. Our students really love being able to buy gifts for their loved ones!

Thank you and God Bless!

New Challenge ... Same Work!

Well, here we are! We have talked about it and our worship time together in the family life center is upon us. As we embark on this time together, it is good to be reminded that anytime a congregation grows or changes in some way, the members must be aware and diligent about continuing to do God's work. Satan would love to hinder us in some way or even stop God's work at Jackson St. during our time of "exile."

Therefore, I thought it would be a good time for us to be reminded of tasks every congregation of the Lord's church must meet and for us to be encouraged to be about our Father's business. In 1 Corinthians 15:58, Paul tells the church in Corinth to be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that in the Lord your work is not in vain. Those are always great words to keep in mind.

I pray even in our time of "exile" we will continue to grow in love and maturity and we each will continue to seek after God and His will.

- Mickey

Put on then, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, compassionate hearts, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience, bearing with one another and, if one has a complaint against another, forgiving each other; as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive. And above all these put on love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony. And let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to which indeed you were called in one body. And be thankful. (Colossians 3:12-15)

The Best Memory System

Forget the kindness that you do, as soon as you have done it;
 Forget the praise that falls on you, the moment you have won it.
 Forget the slander that you hear, before you can repeat it;
 Forget each slight, each spite, each sneer, wherever you may meet it.

Remember every kindness done, to you, whate'er its measure;
 Remember praise by others won, and pass it on with pleasure.
 Remember every promise made, and keep it to the letter;
 Remember those who lend you aid, and be a grateful debtor.

Remember all the happiness that comes your way in living;
 Forget each worry and distress, be hopeful and forgiving.
 Remember good, remember truth, remember heaven's above you.
 And you will find through age and youth, true joy and hearts to love you!
