Who Will Take the Picture?

I read a story recently about a wealthy man whose only son was brutally killed. After the murder, the man took a small photo of his son and kept it with him for the rest of his life. When his belongings were to be sold, the auctioneer told the assembled crowd that the first item to go was the picture of the son, but it was free to anyone who would take it.

The crowd stood around and looked at one another impatiently. No one wanted the photo. The auctioneer begged them, but they only looked up at him in frustration. Finally the auctioneer said that according to the man's will, the picture had to go before anything else could. Finally, a lady in the back said, "I'll take it."

The auctioneer handed her the photo and said, "That will now close the auction. The will also instructs me to hand over the entire estate to the person willing to accept the picture of the son."

We have a wonderful inheritance available from God the Father, but we must be willing to accept Christ before that can happen. The good news is that while there was only one photo in the story, all of us can accept the picture of Christ in the Bible and share in the wonderful things God has in store for us!

But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things shall be added to you.
(Matt 6:33)

ATTENTION ADULTS:

Camp Kurios is currently looking for some men to help out for Jr. Week 2019: June 2-7th. Currently, we need Bible Class Teachers (one hour a day, Monday through Thursday), and male counselors. Sr. Week, June 9-15th, is currently looking for a female bible class teacher.

If a week of camp sounds like too much fun for you to handle, maybe try on Kid's Camp for size, June 7-9th. We are looking for adult men and women to counsel this session of camp.

Please talk with Joel or Scott if you would like to any further info.

We extend our deepest sympathy to RON BETTS, and his family, on the recent death of his nephew, KEITH MARTIN, who had battled cancer for several years.

Alyson White will be part of a Harding University Mission Team serving on a Navajo reservation at Kayenta, AZ, July 5-22. The Elders have contributed Mission Funds from the church budget to her trip. See Paul McLendon if you would like to contribute personally to Alyson's mission trip.
