Who's on the List?

I read a story last week about a fellow who was converted to Christ. He was a somewhat rough fellow who had never even graduated from high school, but he was also enthusiastic and ready to be of service to his Savior. He asked the preacher one day for something to do that would serve God and help the congregation. After thinking about it, the preacher gave him a list of ten names and explained, "These men are all members of the church, but they seldom attend worship. Some are very prominent men of the city, but they need to come back to God. Take some of our church letterhead, contact them, and see if you can get these men back. The angels in heaven will rejoice if you can!"

The new convert was excited and determined to be useful, so he accepted the challenge. About two weeks later a letter came to the church from one of the prominent men whose name had been on the list. Inside the envelope, the preacher found a check for $5000 and this note:

Dear Preacher, Enclosed is a check to help make up for my missing contribution for the past several weeks. I'm sorry for missing worship, but be assured, I'll be there this Sunday and every Sunday after that. I will never miss again!

Sincerely,
Dr. Jones

P.S. Would you please tell your secretary there is only one "t" in "dirty" and no "c" in "skunk?"

I know that story brings a smile to our faces, but I hope it also serves to remind us of the people in our lives who have gone missing from worship. We have the responsibility as a Christian family to reach out, check on their physical and spiritual well-being, and encourage them to return. Of course we want to do it in a much more tactful way, but won't you reach out to just one person this week and encourage them to come home?

-Mickey

Alyson White will be part of a Harding University Mission Team serving on a Navajo reservation at Kayenta, AZ, July 5-22.

TIME CAPSULE:

Stage 1 of preparing for our Time Capsule was to write notations in the Bible which will be sealed up in the capsule. If you haven't done that yet, please do so. Stage 2 of our project is now taking shape, and we want everyone to participate with it as well. We are now gathering items of interest that pertain to this congregation to place with the Bible in an actual time capsule. If you have a "smallish" item to donate for this purpose, we ask you to place it in the black time capsule box at the front of the FLC. Also, if you have an idea of a specific item that should be added but don't have access to it, feel free to place a suggestion there.

WILLISVILLE VBS:
