Thank You

Dear Jackson Street Family,

Without your prayers, calls, visits, gift cards, food, and love, these last past four months would not have been bearable for us. You cannot imagine how you kept me going through all the doctor's appointments, physical therapy, pain, and slow healing. Although I am not fully there, I can see the signs of full recovery coming.

I am typing this because my writing is not very legible and our response of thank you has been so long in coming. Your grace toward us is humbling, and we are blessed beyond measure to have you all in our lives.

In Him,
Roy & Sandy Keith

Mr. Mickey,

I wanted to thank you for the wonderful evening provided by you and the members of your church for the SAU band. Some see it as a simple meal, but the kindness you all showed our band was more than that. For these students on their first few days from home to feel love and fellowship from strangers in a new town is beyond a comforting gesture. The meal was wonderful, but the hospitality was even better.

Best,
J.P. Wilson
SAU Director of Bands

Quotes of the Conference

I was blessed to recently attend a conference with over 5,000 other brothers and sisters in Christ. Today I offer you some of the top quotes from that conference. I suggest placing these somewhere where you can read them periodically because it just may be that what seems like some trivial statement today will become tomorrow's thought that sheds light on a troubling area of your life.

"Parenting is not about you. It's about where your kids will spend eternity. Parent accordingly." -Kevin Rhodes

"You can't preach for our Savior with the attitude of Satan." -Dan Winkler

"Parenting is hard work. The day you choose to take off may be the most impressionable day of their life. What if you missed it?" -Michael Wyatt

"It took Israel one day to get out of Egypt. It took 40 years to get Egypt out of Israel." -Rob Whitacre

"You can be a friendly church and still make your visitors feel unwelcome." -Doug Smith

"Word before world." -Sheila Butt on the best way to start the day.

"When we worship God as he directs, he gets the glory, and we get the benefits." -Andy Baker

"I don't have friends in the church. I have brothers and sisters." -John DeBerry
