40 Days of Prayer

When the subject of new elders arises, congregations rightly spend the majority of their time in 1 Tim. 3 and Titus 1, and we will be no different. I do however, want to encourage us to study other texts to help fill in the picture of a quality elder. Supplemental Texts: 1 Thess. 5:12; 1 Pet. 5:1-4; 1 Tim. 5:17; Acts 20:17-30

Qualities of an Elder

Qualities instead of Qualifications (1 Tim. 3:1-7; Titus 1:5-16)

1. Two common, unhealthy approaches applying the text
2. Historical background (Ephesus vs. Crete)
3. Most qualities apply to every Christian

Three Groupings of Qualities

God desires the elder to...

1. ...be respected, dignified, and above reproach in both the local church and local community.
2. ...have established a life worthy of imitation (most easily seen in leading his own family).
3. ...be a capable teacher of His Word who can use its principles to shepherd the flock.

Qualities from Timothy and Titus

above reproach/blameless	good reputation with outsiders
not quick-tempered	temperate
no drunkard	not violent
not quarrelsome	not greedy
not a recent convert	lover of good
upright	disciplined
self-controlled	respectable
hospitable	not overbearing or self-will
holy	husband of one wife ("one woman's man")
apt to teach/hold firm to the trust-worthy message manage his family well, having submissive, respectful children ("believers")

We are saddened over the death of our dear brother in Christ, EARL ROBINSON, who died last Sunday afternoon. His funeral was Thursday at Lewis Funeral Chapel. Our hearts go out to Liz and her family on this sad occasion.
