40 Days of Prayer- Elders

Today we begin to supplement our 40 Days of Prayer concerning elders with our first discussion about the need and work of an elder. Please take the basic outline of today's sermon and study and pray over each point this week. Take time to learn more about the work and the need of elders in the church.

Why study?

- 1) It is a part of the whole council of God (Acts 20:27).
- 2) Our current eldership deems it good (1 Pet. 5:1-3; Acts 20:28).
- 3) To protect the future of this congregation (1 Pet. 5:2-3; Heb. 13:7, 17)

Three ways the need for elders is seen:

- 1) It is what God desires as understood through NT commands and examples (Acts 14:22-23; Titus 1:5; 1 Tim. 3:1-7).
- 2) God has laid out duties for an elder (also known in the NT as: presbyter, bishop, overseer, pastor, shepherd)
  - a. feed and tend the flock (Acts 20:28, 1 Pet. 5:1-4)
  - b. watch for false teachers (Acts 20:29-30, Heb. 13:17)
  - c. rule in the household of God (1 Tim. 5:17)
  - d. lead diligently (Rom. 12:8)
- 3) Dangers arise when no elders exist or existing elders are not doing their duty (Tim.4:1-3; Titus 1:10-16; Gal. 1:10).

May God bless our every effort to honor Him and His will for us throughout this process.

-Mickey

SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN HOME:

At the request of the SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN HOME, we are suspending food collection. The Home is changing its current means of contributing by changing over to either:

- (1) monetary donations
- (2) purchasing food items off of an on-line registry at Amazon.com. To use the registry, go to the website at schome.org under the tab "Ways to Help." There you will find instructions for donating in this way.

Additional information is on the bulletin board.

Please keep our youth, Joel, Sarah, and Nancy Flemens in your prayers as they travel back from WinterFest in Arlington, TX. We pray that the things they learned while there will strengthen their faith.
